

Freemasonry

Early Days

The Camolodunum Lodge, 958, was formed on 25th January 1856. It met initially at the Talbot Hotel. It was consecrated on 18th March, 1856, when P.M. Cowling of York was installed as the first Worshipful Master. [2] In February 1857 the Lodge was able to meet in its' own accommodation in Yorkersgate, when Z. Mennell was installed as Worshipful Master. [1] In 1863 the Camolodunum Lodge was assigned a revised number, 660. Mr. Thomas Taylor, who carried on a grocer and provisions business in Castlegate, and confectionery and refreshment rooms in Yorkersgate was initiated in the first year. [3] Other members joining or initiated in the first year were: Rev. E. Day, R.H. Bower, R. Jones, W.C. Copperthwaite, Samuel King, Edwin Donkin, Samuel Walker, Samuel Walker, William T. Colby, Thomas Walker, Thomas Buxton, R. Bankes, William Love, Walter Taylor, H. Smithson, John Marshall, Rev. Daniel Ace, Thomas Taylor, Kirton Waudby, William Wilson, William Spaven, Digby Cayley, William Snow, John Staniland, Samuel Waud, William George Searle. [3]

King Edwin Chapter

The King Edwin Chapter was instituted in 1868. The warrant authorising its foundation states: 'We do hereby, with the consent of our said Grand Chapter grant unto the said companions this our charter of constitution to be held and attached to the warrant of Lodge No 660 called the Camalodunum Lodge with full power for them, their companions, and successors, to open and to hold a chapter of our order at the Freemasons' Hall, New Malton, Yorkshire, or at such other place, and such time as our said companions and their successors shall with the consent of us and our successors, grand officers for the time being, think meet. The first chapter to be opened on Wednesday the 11th day of December, now next ensuing by the title of the King Edwin Chapter. [4]
